How to Consign

Consigning to our auctions is meant to be a simple, quick and uncomplicated process. We accept the majority of banknotes for consignment. Please contact us first if you have doubt whether or not a certain item would be suitable for our auctions, we're here to help.

When you're ready to ship your consignment to us please complete a consignment form. If your items are not yet graded by a third-party grading service we will be in touch after we have received your package to make a decision with you whether or not to get the items graded by PMG or PCGS Banknote Grading.

Upon receipt we will give you an estimated date when the items will be listed, so you can keep an eye on our listings and watch the action from the comfort of your own computer or mobile device. We aim to list already graded items within 3 weeks of receipt, but will discuss special circumstances on a case-by-case basis. It is our policy not to list multiples of the same item in the same auction as to guarantee the best possible results, so if you are sending multiples of a certain item it might take a little bit longer.

Shipping to us

Shipping and insurance fees from you to us are your responsibility. Please contact us for information on how to make this as secure as possible. All packages need to be insured and send via a traceable service with signature confirmation. If preferred you can use our USPS Express Mail or Fedex account numbers for shipping and insurance, we will adjust your final statement with the actual cost. Contact us for more information, we are happy to help.

Please ship USPS packages to:

Terms & Conditions for Consignment

1. By submitting paper money to World Banknote Auctions for listing in a future auction consignor agrees to all terms & conditions specified herein.
2. Consignor confirms that: a) he/she has full legal ownership to any item(s) submitted b) all consigned paper money is genuine and c) all third-party holders are genuine and untampered with.
3. World Banknote Auctions has the exclusive right to list item(s) in a future auction as it deems best at its sole discretion and reserves the right to decline or remove any item(s) from a future or ongoing auction to protect the integrity of its auctions. We may combine multiple items in a single lot if we deem this to be in the best interest of the consignor. Consignor may not withdraw any item(s) for any reason after item(s) have been received by World Banknote Auctions.
4. In very rare instances, buyers may fail to satisfactorily complete a transaction. If this occurs World Banknote Auctions reserves the right to deem the sale null and void and relist the item(s) in a future auction.
5. By submitting paper money to World Banknote Auctions consignor understands that no guarantee is given regarding selling price or terms of sale for any item(s). Consignor agrees to hold World Banknote Auctions harmless for any economic loss from the sale of submitted item(s) to World Banknote Auctions for consignment.
6. If consignor submits ungraded ("raw") paper money or item(s) not certified by PMG or PCGS World Banknote Auctions will submit the item(s) for certification at a leading third-party grading company as deemed best fit at the sole discretion of World Banknote Auctions. Consignor agrees to pay any associated fees, including grading and shipping costs, related to certification of paper money at a third-party company.
7. World Banknote Auctions shall, within 30-days of the final sale of items submitted, remit net proceeds to consignor. Net proceeds are the remainder after selling fees, grading fees, cash advances, interest and monies owed to World Banknote Auctions by consignor are deducted from the hammer price. Consignor understands that not all items may be listed in a single auction, and that settlement may be delayed as a result.
8. Items that are on the premises of World Banknote Auctions are insured against loss or damage subject to certain terms and conditions. Consignor agrees in case of loss or damage, to accept any insurance settlement based on fair market value of the item(s), less any seller's fees, and further, that payment by insurance carrier to consignor for such item(s) completely satisfies all obligations of World Banknote Auctions to consignor according to these terms & conditions.
9. By submitting items to World Banknote Auctions consignor agrees to indemnify World Banknote Auctions against any and all loss, damage, expense or liability (including without limitation court costs and attorney fees) arising out of or related to consignor's submission to World Banknote Auctions.
10. If a dispute arises from or relates to this contract or the breach thereof, and if the dispute cannot be settled through direct discussions, the parties agree to endeavor first to settle the dispute by mediation administered by the American Arbitration Association under its Commercial Mediation Procedures before resorting to arbitration. The parties further agree that any unresolved controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this contract, or breach thereof, shall be settled by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The place of arbitration shall be Sacramento, CA. The arbitration shall be governed by the laws of the State of California. Hearings will take place pursuant to the standard procedures of the Commercial Arbitration Rules that contemplate in person hearings. Time is of the essence for any arbitration under this agreement and arbitration hearings shall take place within 90 days of filing and awards rendered within 120 days. Arbitrator(s) shall agree to these limits prior to accepting appointment. The arbitrators will have no authority to award punitive or other damages not measured by the prevailing party's actual damages, except as may be required by statute. Each party shall bear its own costs and expenses and an equal share of the arbitrators' and administrative fees of arbitration. Except as may be required by law, neither a party nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of any arbitration hereunder without the prior written consent of both parties.
